presents: Alla Preobrazhenskaya

She was born in 1961 and raised in Kirovograd's region (Ukraine) in artist's family, where she began painting as a child. Her parents gave her a small box of watercolors and some crayons when she was 5 years of age. Alla was grown up by influence of the famous Ukrainian artist Viktor Preobrazhensky - her grandfather. She received a degree from the University of Kirovograd and Art College.

Alla knew from early on that she was destined to be an artist. She began her artistic life in style of her grandfather, but soon realized that has her own vision. Inspiration lay in oil painting of impressionist manner. That helped young artist to develop her own style.

Works of Alla Preobrazhenskaya are recognizable, bright and colorful. Her manner of painting is easy and rapid, and she give to all her works as much of positive energy that everybody can feel it. Sometimes Alla Preobrazhenskaya loves to create her painting watching by people. So-called alla-prima style, where, instead of building colors up with layers or glazing over an underpainting, the painting is completed while the paint is still wet. Strictly defined, an alla-prima painting would be started and finished in one painting session. Looking at Alla Preobrazhenskaya's works you always getting a feeling of artist sole tension behind the painting. "Impressionism" is the word to describe Alla's paintings.
