presents: Shari Epstein

Shari Epstein moved to Monmouth County just in time for the nor'easter of 1993. Her studio overlooks Sandy Hook Bay in Leonardo. Having received a B.A. from the University of Maryland, she continued painting at the Maryland Art Institute, the New York Studio School and the Vermont Studio Center. She has taught painting through the Monmouth County Park System since 2004.

Shari has shown her paintings extensively in New Jersey having a solo exhibition in both Deal and Summit and participating in numerous group shows including NJN in Trenton, Art From Found Objects currently at the Monmouth Museum, galleries in Asbury Park, Newark, Long Branch and Jersey City.

The subject of her paintings are landscapes, seascapes and gardens abstracted to describe a spontaneity of brushwork and color. "My goal is to show the vitality I see in nature. Nothing in life is static and I want you to experience the energy inherent in my subject."
