Anna Ravliuc

Anna Ravliuc was born in Ukraine. In 1984 she graduated from Ilia Repin Art College. In 2000 Anna graduated from The International Academy of the Economic Law /BA in Design and Advertising of the Audiovisual Arts Department/. Residents of Bucharest, Romania.

Anna Ravliuc has participated in more than forty group exhibitions and twenty-three one-man shows around the world. She is a member of Art & Heritage UNESCO Club and UARF /Artists and Directors Union, Romania/.

Anna Ravliuc has become a powerful impressionist, and chose the world of the Human Body as her another realm within which to communicate.

Anna approaches very cautiously the matter of oil painting technique knowing that only in this way she can assure a long future life to her works. She has long studied the old masters technique, afterward applying it in her works.

Anna Ravliuc has rediscovered for herself the beauty of multi-layered painting which gives unusual depth to her works, purity, and brilliance to her colors. In order to achieve vividness and freshness of her paintings she works very quickly in the beginning, to return later with additional layers of paint and varnish to add new tint and meaning to colors, for tempering or stressing the general effect and for emphasizing the feelings her paintings convey...
